Why do we need your consent?

Collective Vision Trust and Chesterton Community Sports College requests your consent to use images and videos of you for a variety of different purposes.

Without your consent, we will not use images and videos of you except for legal reasons which we do not require consent, eg photo ID badges. Similarly, if there are only certain conditions under which you would like images and videos of you to be used, we will abide by the conditions you outline in this form.

Why do you we use images and videos of you?

Collective Vision Trust and Chesterton Community Sports College uses images and videos as part of school displays to celebrate school life and pupils' achievements; to promote the school and trust on social media and on the school's and trust's website; and for other publicity purposes in printed publications, such as newspapers, newsletters and prospectuses.

Who else uses images and videos of your child?

It is common that the school is visited by local media and press, who take images or videos of school events, such as sports days. You may appear in these images and videos, and these may be published in local or national newspapers, or on approved websites.

The following organisations may use images and videos of your children:

- The Sentinel

Where any organisations other than those above intend to use images or videos of you, additional consent will be sought before any image or video is used.

What are the conditions of use?

- This consent form is valid for your contracted time with Collective Vision Trust
- It is your responsibility to inform the school, in writing, if consent needs to be withdrawn or amended.
- The school will not include personal emails or postal addresses, telephone or fax numbers on images or videos on our website, in our school prospectuses or any other printed publications.
- The school may use pictures of pupils and teachers that have been drawn by pupils.

- The school may use group or class images or videos with general labels, e.g. 'sports day'.

Providing your consent
