GREAT!

For consistent hard-work and excellent behaviour in and out of lessons.

GREAT!

BRAVO!!!

Year 10, we will continue to work on recapping certain Crucial Knowledge points from the year. If you haven't done so already please make sure that Themes 1 & 2 of your general conversation are finished.

In both KS3 & 4, we will be revisiting key crucial knowledge from the past academic year and ensuring that you have retained all your learning.

Please keep completing the Instagram quizzes as we will soon be launching a special competition!

RECOMMENDED READ

Check out CCSC English's Instagram Stories for our 'recommended read' this week.

Lily's life is in mortal peril. Her father is missing and now silver-eyed men stalk her through the shadows. What could they want from her? With her friends - Robert, the clockmaker's son, and Malkin, her mechanical fox - Lily is plunged into a murky and menacing world. Too soon Lily realises that those she holds dear may be the very ones to break her heart... Murder, mayhem and mystery meet in this gripping Victorian adventure.

English Stars of the Week

AP: Scarlett Washington in year 7. She works really hard in and out of the lesson. She always sends entries to the creative writing competition and completes Teach the Teacher forms.

EW: Aaron Wainwright in 9.4, for his amazing effort annotating the Power and Conflict poems this week.

KW: Brianna Hartle, 8.3 - Brianna has shown lovely progression in English and has been producing excellent work. Keep up the great work Brianna.

KDR: Charlie Whittingham (9.2x) for his incredible contributions to our poetry lessons this week. Not only has he demonstrated and excellent understanding of the poems but he has shared his own ideas and interpretations. Good job, Charlie!

GA: Ellie-Mae Kirkham in 9.1y for some fantastic contributions to our whole class study of the anthology poems.

KM: Kayla Smith in 10/2x for brilliant contributions to class discussions in English.

How Does it Work?

1. Get your Reading Passport from your form tutor.

2. Look at the titles your subject has recommended on Sora and read them!

3. Write a review of the recommended title and show it to your form tutor, subject teacher or Miss Durrant - kdurrant@ccsc.staffs.sch.uk

4. Get your teacher to sign the subject on your reading passport. Once your passport is full, hand it in to Miss Durrant!

Rhiannon's Reading Recommendations

Rhiannon has started her own project of interviewing friends, family and teachers on their book recommendations.

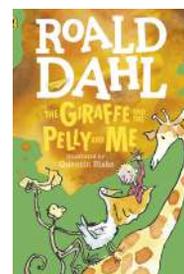

Miss Dunne's Recommendations!

Science Book: Blood, Bullets and Bones!!

The only books I read as a child were Harry Potter, well they weren't but I can't remember many others.

Miss Thompson's Recommendations!

My favourite book as a kid was Roald Dahl's the giraffe the pelly and me. Very fun small easy book ready to read over and over again.

Rhiannon Kearns' Book Recommendation!

The Hunger Games: I have read the first book and I recently was recommended them again. I completely forgot about them, so I have started to read them again. I would recommend to anyone my age.

Mrs Fower & Miss Edwards Recommendations!

Our favourite book is Midnight library an easy read with short compelling chapters that make you want to read on. You see how small choices in life really do change your path for the future.

Some dreams truly are 'impossible dreams.' However, many aren't. Knowing the difference is often one of the first steps to finding your element, because if you can see the chances of making a dream come true, you can also likely see the necessary next steps you need to take toward achieving it.
- Ken Robinson

Some long-term goals for kids.

- Learn a skill, like playing an instrument or cooking a meal.
- Getting good/better grades toward the end of the school year.
- Get better at planning projects and tasks.
- Improve on your hobby or talents.
- Start journaling (write a diary?).
- Learning to drive and get your driver's licence.
- Save up for a car or some other project.

Sir Ken Robinson was a British author, speaker and international advisor on education in the arts to government, non-profits, education and arts bodies. He was director of the Arts in Schools Project and Professor of Arts Education at the University of Warwick, and Professor Emeritus after leaving the university

Armed Forces Day takes place on the last Saturday each June. In 2021, it will take place on Saturday 26 June. Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 21 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country.
