Jones, Rehaan 7HM

Reehan Jones has spent some time this weekend painting the countryside landscape with his grandad. As you can see, he is quite the budding artist! Well done, Reehan!

Whole School Rewards "Be the Best You Can Be"

Reward 1 – Earn 25 event logs to receive a voucher at the end of half term.

Reward 2 – Zero Conduct Log! If you get NO conduct logs in a week (Sunday to Sunday), you will get entered into a lucky dip. A prize for one person, per year group, per week will be announced in Monday's newsletter.

Reward 3 – For every WEEK you receive ZERO conduct logs you get 1 ticket for entry into a lucky dip prize draw. 1 prize for each year group! At the end of each half term ALL tickets are entered into a BIG lucky dip prize draw for a bigger prize, again 1 prize per year!

Reward 4 – Event Log Plus – each teacher makes one phone call home per week to someone who has really impressed them! For every pupil who has had a phone call, they will enter a lucky dip draw. There will be ONE weekly winner who will be announced in the newsletter.

Reward 5 – Outstanding Work Submissions. There will be ONE weekly winner who will be announced in the newsletter.

Reward 6 – At the end of each half term, we present prizes for the Best Boy and Best Girl in each year group. We also do Best Form in each year, Best House and Best Attendance!

Reward 7 – Every pupil who has 100% attendance for that week will be entered into a lucky dip!

Reward 8 – Reward afternoons and Rewards Day – more information to follow!

SO, let's all keep working hard and keep our fingers crossed for our weekend prize draws- a winner in every year group for every category!

HOY AWARDS

Y7

Aimee Tsui and
Lydia Ainscough

For going above and beyond in their lessons this week. Miss Hopwood in particular was very impressed with the sheer amount of work they completed in a recent cover lesson. Well done!

Y8

Laina Bowen

A fabulous young lady. She is kind, caring and embodies the school values.

Hishw Nabaz

she has settled so well into the year group. Hishw has been open minded, determined and worked really hard. I am very proud of you!

Y9

Sonny Bednarski

Great attitude to school. Does his work and responds well to staff. Also got himself involved in some football leadership after school. Well done Sonny!

Dillon Carnall

One of many pupils in Y9 who goes about their business without causing a fuss or creating negative attention. Works hard in lessons and this is recognition for it. Well done and keep it up!

Y10

Amelia Ibi

Impresses me daily! Really great seeing how much progress you are making Amelia. Keep it up.

Nathaniel
Lambourne
Gibbs

Working really hard and putting in superb amounts of effort. Well done!

Y11

This week, Miss Owen, Mrs Hitchen and Mrs Waterhouse have all been to the Jill Clewes BTEC student Christmas Performance. It was a spectacular show that was incredibly professional. We were all very proud of our former pupils who shone on stage. 1st years Keelan, Lexi and Hope and 2nd years Lucy, Ruby and Finn. Well done to all the staff and pupils and a very special shout out to our former pupils who we are all immensely proud of.

STAFF vs YEAR 11 NETBALL

Last week Mrs Baldry hosted the annual Staff vs Year 11 pupil netball fixture. It was a brilliant game from start to finish with the first quarter ending 2-1 to the year 11's. In the second and third quarter the staff made a few changes and concentrated on their footwork and managed to take the lead. As we moved into the final quarter the year 11's dug deep but unfortunately it wasn't enough to beat the staff and the final score was 15-5 to the staff meaning their winning streak continues! A massive thank you to all the staff who came down and played and watched the game but a very special thank you and well done goes to our year 11 netball team. This was their final fixture as a team for CCSC and we could not be prouder of you all!

New movie sparks debate about death

Should euthanasia be a human right? A sensational new film makes a quiet argument for universal assisted dying. But some believe that allowing euthanasia places us on a slippery slope towards legal murder.

The Lido buzzed with excitement. Celebrities strolled self-consciously up the red carpet. It could only mean one thing: the Venice Film Festival was in town.

Venice hummed with life. But the issue on everyone's mind was death. The Room Next Door, the new film by celebrated Spanish director Pedro Almodóvar, has poured fuel on a burning question: whether people should be allowed to end their lives via euthanasia.¹

Adapted from a novel by Sigrid Nunez, the film is about a terminally ill woman who asks an old friend to help her to die.

Critics have marvelled at the film's quiet beauty. But the debate it ignites is more controversial.

Euthanasia is currently legal in 10 countries, but illegal almost everywhere else. In the UK, a doctor can face 14 years in prison for helping someone to die.²

Almodóvar believes that "there should be the possibility to have euthanasia all over the world."³

Euthanasia supporters believe that those who face extreme pain should be able to end their suffering, to face death with dignity.

Yes: It is ridiculous that a country can force people to stay alive against their wishes. The freedom to die is just as important to our dignity as humans as our freedom of speech and expression.

No: For something to be a human right, it has to be recognised around the world. But conversations around life and death are culturally specific. Not all societies are equipped to assess patients fairly or offer painless deaths.

A majority in the UK agrees. A 2023 Ipsos poll found that 65% of respondents think assisted dying should be legal, with only 17% sure it should not be.

Yet not everyone is on board. Medic and peer Ilora Finlay, believes legalising euthanasia could result in up to 58,000 assisted deaths a year. "Such demand would divert an already stretched workforce," she says.

Critics argue that euthanasia opens up many ethical issues. Doctors in many countries currently swear a dedication, based on the Hippocratic Oath.⁴ This often asks them to respect human life and cause no harm to their patients.

Asking doctors to help people die could work against this. Doctors are not qualified to know whether people should die. And patients can recover suddenly.

Legal euthanasia also opens the possibility that vulnerable people could be forced into ending their lives. It could be a slippery slope towards legal murder. People could coerce ill, older relatives to opt for death so they they can claim an inheritance.

Should euthanasia be a human right?

To be or not to be

Or... People should control their deaths. Yet euthanasia gives doctors too much power over life and death. The sufferer should be in the driver's seat. A better approach would be to decriminalise those who assist with suicide.

English Stars of the Week!

Miss Mooney: Layton Hollingsworth-Bowen – Layton has tried really hard with English and has produced some beautiful work. Well done.	Miss White: Maci Walford, for always being really helpful and producing fantastic written work to a high standard 😊
Mrs Allen: Luke Shaw – for a real improvement in both his work ethic and the standard of the work he is producing. This has been most evident in his recent English exams. Well done!	Miss Wedgwood: Hana Nabaz 10/3 – Hana has really impressed me with her attitude towards learning. She has tried really hard with ACC, annotating beautifully and answering lots of questions about context.
Mrs Parton: Jaxon Burrows- he has worked tremendously hard on his creative writing piece. It has been such a delight to witness!	Miss Egan: Seve Buxton – he has worked his socks off this week and made some really interesting contributions to our class discussions xx
Miss Durant: Sophie Forrester for being amazing in every English lesson. It's so lovely to see her confidence growing 😊	Mrs Melvin: David Perkin-Alcaraz: for his continued dedication to improve. Results are being achieved, David. Well done.

Unifrog (an online career platform).

In keeping with our commitment to provide students with outstanding careers guidance and tailored support when choosing their next step after school, this year we subscribed to Unifrog, so that all students in the School have access to this excellent website.

The Unifrog platform is designed to support learners in making the most informed decisions about their futures and has a range of tools that are suitable for all year groups. Each student has their own personal account that provides a wide range of information related to their interests and aspirations.

Key features of the platform include:

- Exploring Pathways – personality quizzes, career and subject profiles and webinars
- Recording– self-reflection about extra-curricular activities and key employability skills
- Opportunities– search tools showing live vacancies/courses/placements for apprenticeships, universities (in the UK and abroad), FE, virtual work experience and much more
- Applications – tools to help students build applications for a range of pathways (e.g., CVs, Personal Statements)

We would encourage parents and carers to use the platform with their child and monitor their use of the platform so you can support them through the process of deciding their next step. Of course, it will be particularly useful in Years 10 and 11 as students plan for their Post 16 years. Although for younger pupils, with longer term plans, it can also help with selecting GCSE options and provide goals which encourage pupils to study harder.
